

THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN

- Thank you to all the athletes who participated in the athletics this past week. Thank you to the coaches for their hard work and to all the parents who supported the athletes.
- Learners may wear civvies on Friday, 01 February 2013 preferably the "Bafana-Bafana" T-shirt, but R5 must be paid to the class teacher to wear civvies.
- All grade 4-6 learners have received textbooks. Parents are to ensure that the books are always kept in a good condition and that the school bags are of a good quality to ensure that these books are always protected.
- Please make sure that the cover page in your child's diary is filled in correctly with the necessary emergency numbers. Please make sure you read your child's diary on a daily basis and sign the relevant pages.
- Some of the school uniform orders have been received and soon all our Fleurtjies will have their correct uniform. Please make sure that your daughter wears the correct hair accessories – navy blue (see school diary)
- Today is the individual photo day. You will soon be informed regarding the cost of the package.
- The baseline assessment conducted early this year in Languages and Maths has resulted in a few learners being referred to intervention classes. Parents have already been informed. You are kindly requested to make the necessary transport arrangements.
- Please be advised that due to safety reasons, parents will no longer be allowed to go to their child's class during teaching time (07:30 – 13:40). Should you need to see a teacher please make an appointment at the office. If you would like to leave something for your child you may do so at the office. This will also limit the disruption in the class.

Uniform

- Due to a lack of school uniform stock, learners will be allowed to wear jeans or navy shorts with a navy blue T-shirt.
